Anchor Books, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 130 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This exquisite prose debut from prize-winning poet Cynthia Zarin is a poignant exploration of the author s experiences with love, work, and the surprise of time s passage. Zarin charts the shifting and complicated parameters of contemporary life and family in writing that feels nearly fictional in its richness of scene, dialogue, and mood. The writer herself is the marvelously rueful character at the center of these tales, at first a bewildered young woman navigating the terrain of new jobs and borrowed apartments in a long-vanished New York City. By the end, whether describing a newlywed journey to Italy, a child s life-threatening illness, Mary McCarthy s file cabinet, or the inner life of the New Yorker staff, this history of the heart shows us how persistent the past is in returning to us with entirely new lessons.
