Here s the scenario: It was the match of the century for the prestigious Porous Pines Country Club. For the past decade, professional champion Holin Wunn had dominated the tournaments throughout the region. His prowess as a pro resulted in awards, accolades and, of course, a lifestyle that most golfers only dream of. Wunn s tenacity on the tee and rigor in the rough were unchallenged by any man - but not so when it came to women. For the past year, Birdie Bigelow, the undisputed women s regional champ had repeatedly issued a challenge to the legendary Wunn. She would (so she proclaimed) in match play, demonstrate that Wunn s stance to keep women out of men s tournaments was more the result of fear than...
