Songstress Davina Lacey dreams of being at the top of the Gospel charts-and she has the right voice to do it. Her narrow focus on her career blocks out any chance for and even thoughts about love. Yet when rumors challenging her heterosexuality begin to circulate in the Christian community, her pre-album sales take a nose dive. Under the directive of her record label, she stages a wedding proposal with her label-mate, Kenny Kauffman. The faux engagement is only supposed to be a temporary solution, but when fans become obsessed with their ideal relationship and superstar wedding, a public break up between Davina and Kenny becomes difficult to do. To make matters worse, a leak of the tentative wedding date to the paparazzi, and the antagonistic behavior of a blogger determined to expose their lies, forces the couple to begin planning a wedding absent of true commitment. Will Davina say I do for the sake of achieving her career goals, or will she tell the world the truth and risk losing everything that both she and Kenny have worked so hard to gain?.
