The Fair ground, containing twenty-four acres, is beautifully located just north of and adjoining the town of Hartford City, the county seat of Blackford county, Indiana, with one of the best halfmile tracks in the State and all the modern improvements, having ample accommodations and shelter for stock, plenty of stock water and good drinking water. Mechanical Hall and Fruit Hall being filled and well managed were an especial feature of the Fair. But the crowning wonder was Floral Hall, under the direct supervision of Mr. T. P. Van Winkle and his lady assistants. With its wealth of flowers, ornamental needle-work, canaries and pretty girls was enough to almost convince the writer that single blessedness was not what it is cracked up to be. The large and elegant display of...

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
